In Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), members do not pay dues or fees for membership or to attend regular meetings. However, conferences and conventions are considered special events that require funding for planning and venue costs. These costs are covered through registration fees paid by members, ensuring that AA remains self-supporting and free from outside contributions.

73rd Indiana State Convention Speakers

Monica F., Chicago, IL

Armando G., (Spanish) Michigan

Jane MacP., (AFG) Brookfield, OH

Racy J., New York, NY

Greg M., Henderson, NV

Katie H., Fair Oaks, CA

Sherry S., (ECR Trustee) Curtice, OH

"Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films. "Thus, we respectfully ask that A.A. speakers and A.A. members not be photographed, videotaped, or identified by full name on audio tapes and in published or broadcast reports of our meetings, including those reports online. "The assurance of anonymity is essential in our efforts to help other problem drinkers who may wish to share our recovery program with us. And our Tradition of anonymity reminds us that 'A.A. principles come before personalities.'"

Thank you for attending!

See you at the 74th Indiana State Convention!
March 21-23, 2027
South Bend, Indiana

“Out of respect for others, please do not take photographs during any of the meetings. Also, be considerate when taking photographs around convention venues. Take care that you do not capture images of A.A. members, family members, and friends who did not give permission and may not wish to appear in your pictures. Please do not post recognizable photos of identifiable A.A. members on websites accessible to the public, including unrestricted pages on social networking sites.”
